Arrival of Stamps for Charleston

CHARLES-TOWN, October 30.

FRIDAY the 18th inſtant, late in the evening, arrived, and came to an anchor under the cannon of Fort Johnſon. The ſhip Planter's Adventure, Capt. Miles Lowrey, from London: It having been ſome time before reported, that a diſtributor of ſtamps for this province was coming over in this ſhip, and it being ſuſpected, from the circumſtance of its coming up to town that night, that there was on board either a ſtamp-officer, ſtamps, or ſtampt paper.

Early on Saturday morning (Oct. 19th.) in the middle of Broad-ſtreet and Church-ſtreet, near Mr. Dillon's (being the moſt central and public part of the town) appeared ſuſpended, on a gallows twenty feet high, an effigy, deſigned to repreſent a diſtributor of ſtamp-paper, with a figure of the devil on his right hand, and on his left a boot, with a head ſtuck upon it, diſtinguiſhed by a blue bonnet; to each of which were affixed labels, expreſſive of the ſenſe of a people, unſhaken in their loyalty, but tenacious of juſt liberty, who had conceived "that all the internal duties impoſed upon them, without the conſent of their immediate, or even virtual, repreſentatives, was grievous, oppreſſive, and unconſtitutional; and that an extenſion of the powers and juriſdiction of admiralty courts in America, tended to ſubvert one of their moſt darling legal rights and privileges, that of trials by juries."——On the boot, in very conſpicuous characters, was written, "LIBERTY and no STAMP-ACT;" and on the back of the principal figure theſe words, viz. "Whoever ſhall dare attempt to pull down theſe effigies, had better been born with a mill ſtone about his neck, and caſt into the ſea."——In this ſituation the effigies remained the whole day, without one perſon's offering to diſturb or take them down, the court of general ſeſſions of the peace, oyer and terminer, aſſize, and general jail delivery, ſitting all the while; nor was there the leaſt riot or diſturbance, tho' a great concourſe of people inceſſantly reſorted to the place of exhibition.——In the evening the figures were taken down, and received in a cart or wagon, drawn by eight or ten horſes, when a proceſſion commenced down Broad-ſtreet to the Bay, attended at leaſt by 2000 ſouls, continuing from thence to the exchange, and up Tradd-ſtreet, halting at the door of a houſe belonging to George Saxby, Eſq; (the then ſuppoſed diſtributor of ſtamps) occupied by Capt. William Coats, doing ſmall injuries to the windows of which it was impoſſible to prevent from ſo great a number (whom it required great prudence, and no leſs exertion of influence in many, to reſtrain from leveling it with the ground) not owing however to any perſonal diſlike to Mr. Saxby, but their deteſtation of the office; and even thoſe might have been prevented, had there been no backwardneſs ſhewn in opening the doors, and an anſwer as readily given as was expected to the queſtion, "whether there were any ſtampt papers in the houſe?" Upon the doors being as length opened, and no ſuch papers found, the cart, with its contents proceeded to the Green, north of the brick Barracks, where the effigies were committed to the flames, amidſt the loud and repeated ſhouts of an encreaſing multitude.——The bells of St. Michael's church rang muffled all day; and, during the proceſſion, there was a moſt ſolemn knell as for the burial of a coffin, on which was inſcribed "AMERICAN LIBERTY."——No outrages whatever were committed during the whole proceſſion, except the trifling damage done to Mr. Saxby's houſe, whoſe furniture, 'twas ſaid, had been moſtly removed into the country ten days before: But after the proceſſion and funeral, diligent ſearch was made for another gentleman, upon a report prevailing in the evening, that HE was appointed DISTRIBUTOR of the ſtamps, and not Mr. Saxby, in order to be informed, "whether HE intended to execute the office." This gentleman not being found at night, had like to have produced ſome commotion; but the next day (being Sunday) a ſolemn declaration, ſigned by him, was ſtuck up at the Exchange, importing, "that he neither had received a commiſſion, knew of his appointment, or that the ſtampt papers were conſigned to him," which, in ſome meaſure, appeaſed the people.

Monday (October 21ſt) the following proclamation was publiſhed in open court, and in the uſual manner about the town,

SOUTH-CAROLINA:

By the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majeſty's ſaid Province, and Vice-Admiral of the ſame.

A Proclamation.

WHEREAS a number of perſons unknown, did, on Saturday night laſt aſſemble together, and in a riotous and tumultuous manner, enter the houſe of William Coats, and did there commit ſeveral outrages and acts of violence: I have therefore thought fit, with the advice of his Majeſty's Council, to iſſue this my PROCLAMATION, hereby offering a reward of FIFTY POUNDS ſterling, to any perſon who ſhall diſcover the perſon or perſons concerned in the ſame, and alſo his Majeſty's moſt gracious pardon to the diſcoverer; if an accomplice; the reward to be paid on conviction of the offender: AND, I do hereby command all Judges, Juſtices, and other Peace Officers, to uſe their utmoſt endeavours to preſerve the public peace; and all his Majeſty's liege ſubjects to be aiding and aſſiſting to them therein.

Given under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at CHARLES-TOWN, the Twenty firſt Day of OCTOBER, in the fifth Year of his Majeſty's reign, Anno Domini 1765.

WILLIAM BULL.

By his Honour's Command,
THOMAS SHOTTOWE, Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

From this time every thing remained perfectly quiet, except that ſeveral advertiſements were daily ſtuck up in public places, declarative of, or alluſive to, firmneſs, in ſupport of natural rights, and oppoſition to oppreſſive and unconſtitutional burthens; the ſtampt papers being then ſuppoſed to be lodged in Fort-Johnſon.

Wednesday (Oct. 23d.) His Majeſty's ketch the Speedwell, commanded by Capt. Faulkener, came down from Hobcaw, immediately proceeded to Fort Johnſon, and anchored cloſe thereto, the garriſon of which had been augmented, &c. The ſame evening it was reported, that the ſtampt papers had been brought up to town, unobſerved, and lodged in the houſe of a gentleman at Anſonborough; upon which a number of people went thither to be ſatisfied of the truth of the report; but finding none, they returned quietly, without offering the leaſt inſult to any perſon whatever.

Thurſday (Oct. 24th.) by order of his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, an advertiſement was ſtuck up at the Watch Houſe, ſigned by the clerk of the council, giving notice, "that the ſtamps lately arrived [illegible] which [illegible] ſhould be neceſſary [illegible] againſt [illegible] Capt. [illegible] upon which [illegible] that [illegible] his [illegible] arrived. [illegible] inſtead of ordering an to town in the ſhip, went above at Fort-Johnſon; and it being then certainly known, that Mr. Caleb Lloyd was actually to be diſtributor of the ſtamps for the province, numbers of people again aſſembled, and formed very readily: But Mr. Saxby, being then acquainted, at the Fort, of the commotions which had ariſen throughout America, on account of the STAMP-ACT, &c. that it was as little reliſhed here as any where, he expreſſed great concern that his acceptance of an office under it (that of inſpector of the ſtamps) had proved ſo odious and diſagreeable to the people, and, in order to reſtore the public peace (which there was too much reaſon otherwiſe to fear might be diſturbed) made a voluntary offer to ſuſpend the execution of his office (which was all that ſeemed to be deſired) till the determination of the King & parliament of Great-Britain ſhould be known, upon a united application to be made from his Majeſty's colonies, for a repeal of an act that had created ſo much confuſion: Mr. Lloyd, who was then alſo at Fort Johnſon, made a like voluntary declaration, in regard to his office of diſtributor; and

Sunday evening (Oct. 23th.) theſe declarations, in writing, were publickly read on the Bay, to the general joy of the inhabitants, which was ſhewn by loud and repeated acclamations, and the ringing of St. Michael's bells unmuffled.

Monday morning (Oct. 28th.) St. Michael's bells were again rang, the veſſels in the harbour diſplayed their colours, and ſome gentlemen, friends to the two officers, went from town to Fort Johnſon, to bring them up under their protection. At noon they came aſhore at Mr. Motte's wharf, from a boat, in the head of which was hoiſted an Union-flag, with the word "LIBERTY" in the center, and a laurel branch on the top of the ſtaff. Upon their landing, a lane was inſtantly formed, amidſt the greateſt concourſe of people that ever were aſſembled here upon any occaſion (being ſuppoſed upwards of ſeven thouſand ſouls) and a new declaration was publickly read, under the hands and ſeals of the two gentlemen, of which the following copy has been given us, viz.

SOUTH-CAROLINA,

WE George Saxby, appointed inſpector, and Caleb Lloyd, diſtributor, of the ſtamps and ſtampt papers, under the ſtamp-act, for the province aforeſaid, do ſolemnly declare and proteſt before God (and ſo may he help us) that neither of us will, directly or indirectly, by deputy or otherwiſe, take upon us, or either of us, to execute, or cauſe to be executed, the office of diſtributor of the ſtamps or ſtampt papers in the ſaid province, or any thing incident or relating thereto, until a united application of a few of the ſtampact will go down there; but many are of opinion, the people of that infant colony will ſhew as great a diſlike to it, as any other.

To morrow (being the firſt of November) moſt of the buſineſs in public offices will ceaſe; and from this day the publication of the SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE, will alſo be ſuſpended, it being impoſſible to continue it without great loſs to the printer, when the numerous ſubſcribers thereto have ſignified, almoſt to a man, that they will not take in ONE ſtampt news-paper, if ſtamps could be obtained.

☞ During the ſuſpenſion, the printer hopes thoſe indebted to him will conſider, that tho' he is to live without work, yet he cannot ſupport himſelf and a large family, unleſs the money due to him is paid.

qualified and took their seats, and chose the hon. Peter Manigault, Esq; for their speaker, who being presented to the Lieutenant Governor in the afternoon, His Honour was then pleased to open the session with the following speech to that house and his Majesty's council, viz.

Honourable Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council,

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Assembly,

AS I have no immediate commands from his Majesty, to propound any particular matter to your consideration, I shall at present only recommend a few things to you, which tend to promote the general welfare of the province, not doubting, but your attention thereto will suggest likewise many; and I may, in the course of your session, occasionally mention more.

In the first place, I must propose to you, the re-printing your Laws; for compleat printed copies are not to be had, and the want thereof is much complained of. As the laws of the land are the rule by which the British subject is governed, it is very necessary that they should be more easily procured, to be more commonly known and obeyed. The same idea leads me to recommend, the establishment of COURTS OF JUSTICE in the remote parts of the province, by which means the laws will be there more effectually carried into execution, to the great ease, convenience and security of the people who are settled at a distance from this town.

An expeditious, safe and frequent correspondence between neighbouring provinces, is of great importance to promote their commerce; and, as BENJAMIN BARONS, Esq; Deputy Post-Master General, for the Southern district of North-America, has fixed in this town, his General Post Office, now much improved by several beneficial regulations prescribed by a late act of parliament, I recommend to you, to give such assistance to that office, as will enable him to continue the Post thro' this, from the Northern to the Southern provinces. I shall lay such papers concerning this matter before you, as you think may be necessary for your information.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

It is with great pleasure I acquaint you, that a quarry of stone is found near the place where Fort-Charlotte is to be built, of which durable materials, the building of that Fort is now carrying on with great diligence; I must desire you to provide for the expence thereof, as I have reason to believe, it will be completed early next spring. The repairs of Fort Prince-George are now finished: This work has been so effectually attended to, as will render it equal to a new fort. I shall order the accompts thereof, as well as of all the public debts for the current year to be laid before you; and I desire you will make provision for discharging the same.

Honourable Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Assembly,

I have been so long witness of the dutiful behaviour of our General Assembly to the King, and of their considering the service of His Majesty and this province as inseparable, which has redounded so much to their honour, and to the advantage of their country, that I cannot doubt, but your future deliberations and proceedings will be formed upon the same wise and loyal principles, the surest and most lasting foundation whereon you can establish the tranquillity, the prosperity, and the happiness of your country; and you may be always assured, of my ready concurrence in every measure for attaining those desirable ends, which duty to his Majesty and affection to his province can dictate.

October 29, 1765. WILLIAM BULL.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

To the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor, and commander in chief, in and over the said Province.

The humble Address of the Upper House of Assembly.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOUR,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the council of this province, now met in general assembly, return our thanks to your Honour, for your speech delivered to both houses yesterday.

The reprinting the laws, and establishing courts of justice, in the remote parts of this province, are objects the importance of which we are well apprized of, and both our inclination and duty will lead us to embrace such measures, as will have a tendency to remedy the grievances complained of for want of them.

Whatever assistance may be necessary for us to give, to effect an expeditious, safe, and frequent correspondence, between this and the neighbouring provinces, we shall gladly contribute, and we felicitate ourselves on the agreeable prospect of a plan of such general utility being likely to take effect.

It is with the greatest pleasure, that we take this opportunity of returning our thanks to your Honour, for that duty to the King, zeal for his service, and unwearied care and attention to the interest of this province, which have so distinguished your Honour's administration.

And the testimony you are pleased to give, of our dutiful behaviour to his Majesty, and of our having ever considered his service and that of the province, inseparable, affords us the highest satisfaction, and we assure your Honour, that our future deliberations and proceedings ever will be founded on the same wise and loyal principles.

The Lieutenant-Governor's Answer.

Honourable Gentlemen,

I RETURN you my hearty thanks for this address, which so strongly expresses your duty to the King, and your attention to the service of this province, and am very happy in the approbation you are pleased to give of my endeavours to perform what is my bounden duty.

October 30, 1765. WILLIAM BULL.

On Thursday the Honourable Commons House of Assembly presented their address to His Honour, in these words, viz.

To the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Esq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majesty's province of South-Carolina.

The humble Address of the Commons house of assembly of the said province.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOUR,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the representatives of the inhabitants of this province, now met in assembly, beg leave to return your Honour our sincere thanks for your speech at the opening of this session.

We have met together with hearts fully disposed for the general welfare of the province, and our duty and affection to his Majesty, and to our country, oblige us to make this public declaration, that all our future deliberations and proceedings shall be founded on such true constitutional principles of loyalty to our most gracious sovereign, as will, we trust, produce happiness and freedom to our constituents; and we have the strongest motives to be assured of your Honour's aid and concurrence in every measure tending thereto.

We are obliged to your Honour for your good opinion of the conduct and behaviour of our predecessors in assembly, and doubt not the general assembly of this province will ever merit a declaration of the same truth.

Your Honour's conduct in the administration of government among us, calls loudly for applause; in our opinion you have ever acted as a loyal dutiful delegate to the King, and with affection and regard to his loyal subjects, the people of this province.

The several matters recommended by your Honour to our particular consideration, relative to courts of justice, and the post-office, will be duly attended to.

We thank you, Sir, for the information you have been pleased to give us relative to Fort Charlotte, and Fort Prince George, and for your attention to these necessary works, which, we hope, will greatly promote his Majesty's service, and the peace and tranquility of the inhabitants in the remote parts of this province. And your Honour may depend, that the expence attending the same, as well as making provision for the public debts, shall in due course be taken under consideration.

In the Commons House of Assembly,
the 31st day of October, 1765.
By order of the house,
PETER MANIGAULT, Speaker.

To which the Lieutenant Governor gave this answer.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

I RETURN you my cordial thanks for this address, which gives me such strong assurances of your loyalty and duty to the King, and of your regard for the welfare of your country; and with you, I trust, that such behaviour will produce the freedom and happiness which it ascribes, and you desire.

Your favourable acceptance you are pleased to give to my endeavours, to serve his Majesty and this province, in the administration of the government, demands my sincere thanks; as it affords me the highest satisfaction, it will animate me to persevere in the same conduct.

October 31st, 1765. WILLIAM BULL.

And then the house, being a very thin one, desired and obtained leave to adjourn to Monday the 25th of November next.

Rawlins Lowndes, Esq; speaker to the last assembly, and James Skirving, Esq; both elected for St. Bartholomew's parish, and Daniel Heyward, Esq; for St. Peter's, having refused to serve; the elections for Prince Frederick's and St. James Santee, being declared void; Benjamin Elliott, Esq; serving for St. Paul's, Benjamin Guerard, Esq; for St. Michael's, and Arthur Middleton, Esq; for St. Helena; and the votes for Hopkin Price, and Henry Perroneau, Esqrs. upon a canvass, appearing to be equal,—new writs are issued for the election of two members for St. Bartholomew's, one for St. Peter's, two for Prince Frederick's, two for St. James Santee, one for St. Andrew's, one for Prince William's, one for St. James's Goose-Creek, and one for St. Philip's parishes—in all eleven new members.

Mr. Thomas Farr, jun. has been chosen clerk-assistant to the commons house of assembly. The candidates were (besides Mr. Farr) Fenwick Bull, Charles Woodmason, William Masley, and George Johnstone, Esqrs.

From East-Florida, we have an account of the deaths of Dennis Rolle, Esq; member of parliament for Barnstaple, and Harry Lloyd, Esq.

In the Carolina Packet, Capt. Robson, from London, Mr. Douglass, manager of the American company of comedians is returned, who, we hear, has brought over, at a great expence, a most excellent set of scenes done by Mr. Dell, principal scene-painter to Covent-Garden house, and collected some very eminent performers from both the theatres in London, particularly in the SINGING-WAY, so that the English COMIC OPERA, a species of entertainment that has never yet appeared properly on this side the water, is likely to be performed here this winter to advantage.

Besides George Saxby, Esq; and his lady, Miss Elizabeth Watsone, daughter of Mr. John Watsone, formerly an eminent merchant in this town, Mr. Andrew Rutledge, and Mr. Creighton, merchants, are returned from London, in the ship Heart-of-Oak.

The people of North-Carolina, we are informed, have shewn their distrelish to the stamp-act, by hanging, whipping and burning effigies, and every possible mark of contempt, not only to the officers who were to act there under its authority, but also to every person who had said any thing in favour of it—so that the whole continent seems to be thrown into confusion.

To the PRINTER.

SIR,

THE price of firewood of late years is grown a great charge, owing chiefly to two causes; one, by a certain person's ingrossing and monopolizing all the wood on Cooper and Wando rivers; the other, by the carelessness of many persons, who send to the person above meant for cords of wood when they want any, and take what he sends them, without knowing the quality or price of the wood; by which means they are often furnished with rotten and rubbish wood, at the highest price that his conscience will admit him to take, which, I believe, will be found to be large and extensive enough, to give him a large gain.

The true policy of every government is, to prevent extortion and imposition being used by any person buying and selling the common and most useful articles necessary to support life, such as corn, firewood, &c. and almost all cities in Europe have made laws to prevent such vile practices. Surely Charles-Town should not want some provision by law, or otherwise, to prevent such imposition on the rich, and inhuman doings to the poor.

The price of wood on Cooper, Wando, and Ashley rivers, for two winters past, and this winter coming, has been mostly agreed for at forty shillings the cord at the highest price; therefore if ten shillings should be allowed, for landing wood and commission on the sale; four pounds, five shillings a cord would be a good price for the whole winter season, because if it cost forty shillings, with ten for landing and commission, a cord of wood would leave thirty five shillings for a good freight for the boat, and a good profit besides.

If a law was passed to remedy this evil that is often complained of, those persons who buy wood in the country, and bring it to town in their boats, might be prevented from selling it at too great a price, by making them liable to pay twenty pounds, if they take or demand any price greater than four pounds five shillings for a cord of wood so bought in the country, and brought to town for sale, during the winter six months, or if they take more than three pounds ten shillings during the summer six months.

I have desired you to give this a place in your gazette, in hopes the next assembly will take this matter into their consideration, and make such provision as the nature of the matter requires. If my hints prove of any advantage to the poor and middling people, it will be a real pleasure to him, who is, Sir, Yours &c. Z. Z.

DOMINICA, July 31st, 1765.

By the King's Authority.

PUBLIC notice is hereby given, That the Commiſſioners appointed by his Majeſty, for the ſale and diſpoſal of lands in the iſland of Grenada, the Grenadines, Tobago, St. Vincent and Dominica, have reſolved to hold the ſales of land for the enſuing year, in the ſeveral iſlands that are the object of their commiſſion, at the following times, that is to ſay,

On Monday the 19th day of February next, the ſale will commence in the iſland of Dominica. The lots will conſiſt chiefly of eſtates abandoned by the French in different parts of the iſland; plantation lots in the levels of Roſeau and Layou, and in the neighbourhood of Prince Rupert's Bay and Grand Bay; and ſeveral town-lots in different places.

On Thurſday the 10th day of April next will be put up to ſale, ſome houſes and lands in the iſland of Grenada.

On Tueſday the 6th day of May next will commence the ſale of lands in the iſland of Tobago, where ſeveral plantation lots in the neighbourhood of Great Courland Bay, Great Rockly Bay, Barbados Bay, Grand River Bay, and Carrapuſe Bay, will be put up to ſale. And,

On Wedneſday the 28th day of May next, will commence, the ſale of lands in the Iſland of St. Vincent, where will be put up to ſale, ſeveral plantation lots in the level of Morne Agarou, and in the quarters of Chateau Belair, and Ouchillabau, moſtly of a very excellent ſoil, and adapted for ſugar plantations; and ſeveral town-lots in different places. And alſo will be put up to ſale, in the Iſland of St. Vincent, at the ſame time, what plantation lots remain unſold in the iſland of Tobago. Advertiſements deſcriptive of the ſituation and ſoil of each allotment ſhall be publiſhed as ſoon as poſſible.

The terms and conditions on which the ſaid lands will be ſold are, That no perſon ſhall be permitted to purchaſe from the crown, either in his own name, or in the names of others in truſt for him, more than allotments to the amount of five hundred acres in the Iſland where the lands lie, or more than three hundred acres if in the Iſland of Dominica.

That the higheſt bidder for each lot ſhall be declared the purchaſer, who ſhall thereupon pay down twenty per cent. of the whole purchaſe money, and ſix pence ſterling for each acre of which his lot ſhall conſiſt, to defray the expence of ſurveying the ſame; whereupon he ſhall receive a bill of ſale and a certificate from the Commiſſioners of his being the higheſt bidder; upon producing which bill of ſale and certificate to the Governor General of the Grenades, and the Neutral Iſlands, or the commander in chief for the time being, he ſhall be entitled to a grant in fee ſimple (under the ſeal of the Iſland) of the lands by him purchaſed, and take poſſeſſion thereof; ſuch grant to be regiſtered in the Secretary's-Office of the reſpective Iſland where the lands lie.

That in caſe of fraud, colluſion, or other contravention to the King's inſtructions, and not otherwiſe, the grant ſhall be revocable, for the ſpace of twelve months from the date thereof, by the Lord High Treaſurer, or the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being; but if not revoked within that term, the ſame ſhall then be abſolute; if revoked, notice thereof ſhall be immediately given, and the money returned to the purchaſer with the uſual intereſt of the Iſland; and compenſation alſo made for all ſums of money, which ſhall bona-fide have been laid out for clearing, improving, or building, on any part of the lands contained in ſuch grant, to be aſcertained by arbitration.

That of the purchaſe money remaining due, ten per cent. more than the twenty per cent. above-mentioned, ſhall be paid within the firſt year after the date of the bill of ſale, ten per cent. the ſecond year, and twenty per cent. every ſucceſſive year until the whole ſhall be paid; but in default of any of the ſaid payments, the lands ſhall be liable to be forfeited, and again ſold, in order that the King may be firſt paid, and the reſidue ſhall be the property of thoſe before intitled to it.

That from twelve months after the date of the grant, the purchaſer ſhall clear away at the rate of five acres in the hundred annually, until one half of the cultivable land ſhall be cleared, under a penalty of five pounds ſterling per annum for every acre not cleared in purſuance of this condition.

That for every hundred acres of cleared land, the purchaſer is or ſhall be poſſeſſed of, he ſhall keep thereon one white man, or two white women, under a penalty of forty pounds ſterling for every white man, and twenty pounds ſterling for every white woman that ſhall be wanting; and pay an annual quit rent of ſix-pence ſterling per acre on whatever cleared land he has purchaſed, or ſhall clear in purſuance of the conditions required.

That all payments ſhall be made conformable to the King's inſtructions to the Receiver, in good gold ſpecie, to be taken by weight at the rate of three pounds eighteen ſhillings and three pence ſterling per ounce; and bonds ſhall be given to him by the purchaſers for the payments of the ſeveral inſtalments.

That a reſervation ſhall be made to the King of all gold and ſilver mines, which are now, or may hereafter, be diſcovered in the ſaid Iſlands. By Direction of the Commiſſioners,

DOMINICA, Auguſt 8, 1765.

WHEREAS ſeveral of the twenty-five perſons to whom Governor Dalrymple granted town-lots in Charlotte-Town, have not laid their grants before the Commiſſioners, as required to do by ſeveral advertiſements, public notice is therefore given, that all unclaimed lots whereon houſes have not been built, and for which the proportion of the money ſtipulated by Gov. Dalrymple's agreement to be paid for Madam Fourneau's paſture ſhall be unpaid on the 1ſt day of January next, will be conſidered as forfeited, and ſold by public auction; and thoſe perſons who have made their claims and produced their grants, are required immediately to pay ſeven pounds ten ſhillings currency to Mr. Greg the ſecretary, that ſum being each perſon's reſpective ſhare of the purchaſe money, when they may receive the certificates to enable them to procure grants under the great ſeal of theſe iſlands.

By Direction of the Commiſſioners.

DOMINICA, July 8, 1765.

By the Commiſſioners for the ſale and diſpoſal of lands in the iſlands of Grenada, the Grenadines, Dominica, St. Vincent, and Tobago.

WHEREAS on account of the number of French inhabitants who have determined to take leaſes of their eſtates in the Neutral Iſlands, and from the multiplicity of ſurveying buſineſs neceſſary to be done, it has been found impracticable to proceed ſo ſpeedily as the ſervice requires without the aſſiſtance of more ſurveyors and negroes than thoſe now employed under the commiſſioners. And as it has been thought neceſſary to fill many plantations in theſe iſlands at computed quantities, ſubject to future ſurveys; and many of the perſons who have purchaſed the ſame, are anxious that actual ſurveys may be immediately made of their eſtates, that they may be able to obtain their grants, and be certain of the quantity of their poſſeſſions, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, for the encouragement of ſurveyors to repair from other parts to the iſlands of St. Vincent and Dominica, and for the convenience of the perſons who have purchaſed ſubject to future ſurveys, as well as the French inhabitants who intend taking leaſes of their eſtates, that they may immediately employ any ſurveyors who are natural ſubjects of the king of Great-Britain, (except thoſe already in the ſervice of the commiſſioners) to make actual ſurveys of the eſtates by them purchaſed, or of which they intend taking leaſes. And in order to prevent frauds, and that no perſons may undertake the buſineſs who are not ſkilled therein; the following rules and reſtrictions are to be obſerved, and an allowance for the expence of making the ſurveys is to be made to the poſſeſſors of the lands as after-mentioned.

That every purchaſer or poſſeſſor of lands as above deſcribed, ſhall be at liberty to employ any perſon to ſurvey his land, being a natural ſubject of the king of Great-Britain, he the ſaid purchaſer or poſſeſſor finding negroes and other neceſſary aſſiſtance.

That every ſuch ſurveyor ſhall act under inſtructions from JAMES SIMPSON, Eſq; his Majeſty's chief ſurveyor, ſo far as relates to the particular mode of executing ſuch ſurvey; whereof he ſhall return to the ſaid chief ſurveyor, a plan laid down by a ſcale of twenty chains to an inch, together with a fair copy of his field-book, ſubſcribed with his name; and make oath before one of his Majeſty's juſtices of the peace, that his field book and the plan of his ſurvey is juſt and true to the beſt of his knowledge: The ſurveyor ſhall alſo make the proper line or lines of diſtinction between the wood land and the cleared land, in the plan which he ſhall return of lands ſold in St. Vincent and Dominica; and of the eſtates poſſeſſed by French inhabitants, he ſhall include only cleared lands within his ſurvey, and ſhall expreſs in the plan whether the land bounding thereon is cleared or wood lands, and if cleared by whom poſſeſſed.

That every perſon acting as a ſurveyor ſhall leave a written notice at the houſes of the proprietors or poſſeſſors of the plantations adjoining to that which he is employed to ſurvey, five days before he runs any of the out-lines of ſuch plantation, and in ſuch notice he ſhall expreſs the particular day and hour when he intends to begin the ſaid line, and from whence he intends to take his departure. And if the proprietors or poſſeſſors of ſuch adjoining lands, or the repreſentatives of either, ſhall think their property encroached upon by ſuch line, the ſurveyor is not to proceed thereon without further directions from the chief ſurveyor. The ſurveyor is alſo required to inform himſelf of the boundaries of the plantation, which he ſhall be employed to ſurvey, by application to the French or other neighbours.

That every perſon acting as a ſurveyor ſhall conform himſelf to the declaration made by his Majeſty's commiſſioners previous to each ſale, in regard to the diſtinction between cleared lands and wood lands; which expreſſes that every piece of land where the woods appear to have been heretofore cut down, ſhall be deemed cleared land, although overgrown with buſhes, and if any diſpute ariſe between the proprietor of ſuch land, or his repreſentative, and the ſurveyor, notice thereof ſhall be immediately given to the chief ſurveyor.

That every ſurveyor ſhall traverſe not leſs than half a mile, nor more than one mile, nor more than one mile, of the ſea ſhore, or ſome capital river, neareſt the eſtate he ſhall be employed to ſurvey, and connect it with the plan of ſuch eſtate, in its proper ſituation with regard to courſe and diſtance.

That the commiſſioners ſhall be at liberty to direct the chief ſurveyor to ſurvey any plantation they may think proper, notwithſtanding it may have been before ſurveyed in the manner directed in the foregoing articles; and where one perſon ſhall have executed the ſurveys of more plantations than three, the chief ſurveyor is directed to write the names of the proprietors of ſuch plantations on ballots, before two witneſſes, and draw one out of three in the uſual manner; and according to ſuch lot he is to make ſurvey of every third plantation, (unleſs the commiſſioners think it unneceſſary) and make a return thereof.

That no ſurvey or plan will be received by the commiſſioners, nor any conſideration allowed by them for any work that is not conformable to theſe rules.

The commiſſioners hereby oblige themſelves to pay unto the proprietors of ſuch eſtates as may be ſurveyed in the manner aforeſaid, as ſoon as they have the chief ſurveyor's return, that ſuch ſurvey has been performed agreeable to the directions before mentioned, and in conformity to his inſtructions, according to the following rates.

For each plantation, containing from one to twenty acres, two ſhillings ſterling for the cleared and three ſhillings and ſix-pence ſterling for the uncleared land per acre.

For ditto, from twenty to one hundred acres, one ſhilling and ſix pence ſterling for the cleared, and three ſhillings ſterling, the uncleared per acre.

For ditto, from one hundred to two hundred acres, one ſhilling and three pence ſterling for the cleared, and two ſhillings and ſix pence ſterling the uncleared per acre.

For ditto, from two hundred to five hundred acres, one ſhilling ſterling for the cleared, and 2 ſhillings ſterling the uncleared per acre.

For the traverſes of ſea ſhores or rivers, not exceeding the quantity before-mentioned, fifteen ſhillings ſterling per mile.

Such perſons as are determined to procure a ſurvey of their plantations, according to the terms above mentioned, are deſired to inform Mr. SIMPSON, the chief ſurveyor, of their intentions, or of their having already executed ſuch ſurvey, before the firſt day of November next, by a letter to be left for him at the commiſſioners office, at St. Vincent, or to the care of ANDREW DEWAR, Eſq; in Dominica: And the commiſſioners expect, that returns of ſuch ſurveys will be delivered in to the chief ſurveyor, before the firſt day of January next.

The inſtructions to be followed by the ſurveyors relating to the particular mode of executing the ſurveys will be immediately lodged at the commiſſioners office in St. Vincent, and with ANDREW DEWAR, Eſq; at Dominica, from whence copies are to be taken.

By direction of the commiſſioners,
